BRABHAM

CANBERRA PREMIERE AT THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AUSTRALIA

Film Screening and Q&A with Director Ákos Armont and Producer Antony Waddington

Inspired by Jack Brabham, Australia's first Grand Prix Champion, this documentary feature shares a story of passion, commitment and the pursuit of excellence. An impressionistic account of a racing dynasty and the price of immortality, Brabham reveals the drive of a father through the journey of a son.

Enjoy the screening and hear from the film's director and producer as they answer audience questions and share exclusive insights about the film.
